

Detroit Institute of Arts & the State of Michigan

Eugene A. Gargaro, Jr., Chair, DIA Board of Directors

Salvador Salort-Pons, Ph.D., Director, President and CEO

A GRAND THANK YOU

- Michigan legislature a key partner in this historic agreement
- A success story driven by leadership
- A partnership with significant beneficial implications for the City and for Michigan and a new day for the DIA

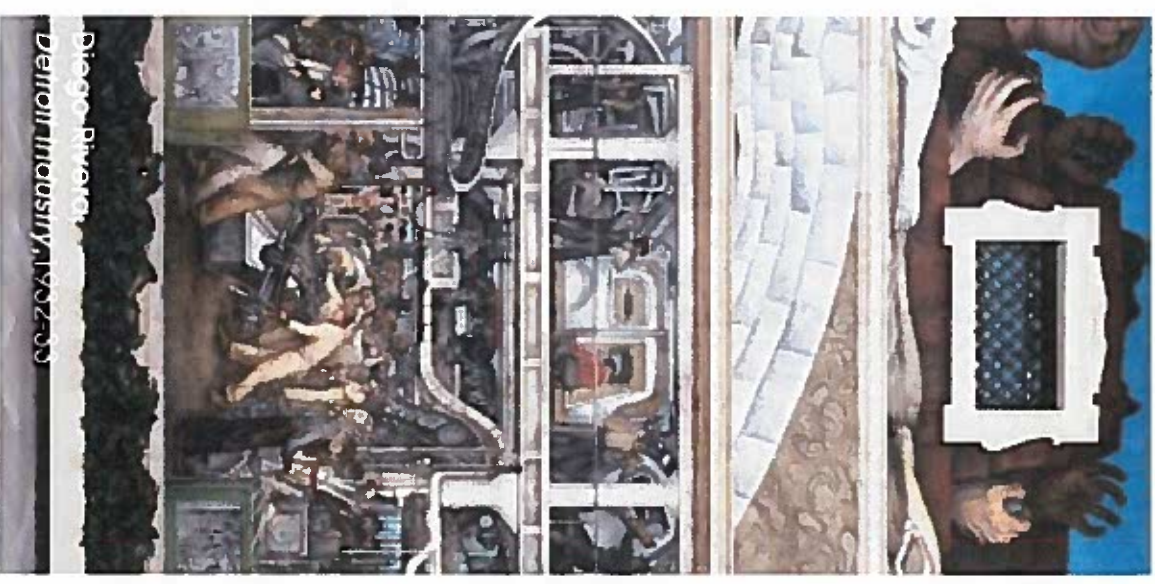

Vincent Van Gogh,
Self Portrait, 1887

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE DIA

- Among the top five encyclopedic art museums in the U.S.
- First museum in the U.S. to acquire a Van Gogh
- Detroit Industry murals named a National Historic Landmark

Diego Rivera,
Detroit Industry, 1927-33

“...the world’s most visitor-friendly museum.”

*- Wall Street Journal,
April 2015*

OUR VISITORS

- Welcomed 666,168 visitors in 2016
- Millage requires free admission for all residents of Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties
- DIA also offers free admission and shop discounts to all teachers, regardless of residency.

STATEWIDE SERVICES:

Exhibitions

Two exhibitions per year in approved venues throughout the state.

2017 will launch a foundation-funded tour of American art from the Manooagian collection to rural locations in Michigan.

STATEWIDE SERVICES: Museum Professional Development

DIA provides professional development for staff at museums throughout the state in partnership with the Michigan Museums Association.

STATEWIDE SERVICES: Inside | Out

The DIA expanded its popular Inside | Out programs to additional outstate locations.

In 2017, we are launching an expansion funded by the federal IMLS to bring Inside | Out to communities identified by MCACA as culturally under-served. This summer, these communities will be Munising and Sturgis.

STATEWIDE SERVICES:

Conservation & Educator Programs

DIA offers discounted art conservation services and consulting to museums throughout Michigan.

Professional development workshops for teachers are offered in two locations throughout the state annually. In 2016, we served two schools in Flint.

THANK YOU!

